FWHA will notify all families of the right to request a minimum rent hardship exemption and that determination is subject to the Grievance Procedure. If the family requests a hardship exemption, the FWHA will immediately suspend the minimum rent for the family until the Housing Authority can determine whether the hardship exists and whether the hardship is of a temporary or long-term nature.

A hardship exists in the following circumstances:

1. When the family has lost eligibility for or is waiting on eligibility determination for a Federal, State or local assistance program;
2. When the family would be evicted as a result of the imposition of the minimum rent requirement;
3. When the income of the family has decreased because of changed circumstances, including loss of employment;
4. When a death has occurred in the family.

No hardship: If FWHA determines there is no qualifying hardship, the minimum rent will be reinstated and back payment of minimum rent for the time of suspension will be required.

Temporary hardship: If the FWHA determines that the hardship is temporary, the minimum rent will be imposed and include back payment for the minimum rent from the time of the suspension. If the family is unable to repay the entire new rent due, the family can not be evicted for non-payment during the 90-day period commencing on the date of the family's request for exemption. A reasonable repayment agreement must be offered for any such rent not paid during that period. If the family thereafter demonstrates that the financial hardship is of long-term duration, the FWHA shall retroactively exempt the family from the minimum rent requirement.

Appeals: The family may use the grievance procedure to appeal FWHA's determination regarding the hardship. No escrow deposit will be required to access the grievance procedure.
